T Tyler C. Arnold was born in 1973 and raised in and around Alton, Illinois. He graduated from Roxana High School in 1991 and Concordia University, River Forest in 1995 with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Sociology. He then attended Concordia Seminary in St. Louis and graduated in 1999 with a Master of Divinity degree. Currently, Pastor Arnold is working to complete his dissertation for the degree of Doctor of Ministry at Concordia Theological Seminary in Fort Wayne, IN in the area of Pastoral Care.

Pastor Arnold has served as a parish pastor since 1999. He was the Assistant Pastor at Christ Lutheran, Platte Woods, MO. from 1999-2004. In 2004 he accepted a Divine Call to serve as Pastor of Trinity Lutheran in Millstadt, IL. He later returned to Christ Lutheran in Platte Woods in 2006 to serve as Sr. Pastor, the position he currently serves.

Pastor Arnold has served on the Board of Congregational Support for the Southern Illinois District, as the Chairman for the Committee on Structure and Administration for the Missouri District as well as the District's Structure and Administration Task Force. He has also served on the Board of Directors at Unity Lutheran School in East St. Louis, IL as well as Pastoral Advisor to the Executive Council of the Northland Lutheran School Association in the Kansas City Northland. He has served for nine years as a Circuit Visitor and on various District program and conference committees. In addition to his work with the District, Pastor Arnold currently serves as a "Fellow" on the Collegium of Pastors for DOXOLOGY – The Lutheran Center for Spiritual Care and Counsel.

Pastor Arnold writes for the LCMS Blog, The Lutheran Witness, and Seelsorger – A Journal for the Contemporary Cure of Souls. He has been a speaker at District Pastors Conferences and various retreats on the topic of the care of souls.

He was joined in marriage to Andrea (nee Thur) in 1995 in Ste. Genevieve, MO where her father served as pastor at the time. They are blessed to have two boys, Jacob and Benjamin. Jacob attends Missouri State University in Springfield, MO and Benjamin is in his senior year at Lutheran High School of Kansas City.

“Therefore confess your sins to each other and pray for each other so that you may be healed. The prayer of a righteous man is powerful and effective.”

James 5:16
